I understand:

- my child wishes to become a volunteer at Patterson Library
- that in such a role, they will not be compensated financially or in any other manner for their volunteer time
- they are not an employee, so not entitled to any benefits provided to paid staff
- should they apply for any future job openings, the Patterson Library is under no obligation to hire them
- my child's volunteer service can be terminated at any time and for any reason by myself, my child or the Library Director, with or without notice
- as a volunteer, my child agrees to follow the Patterson Library Code of Conduct and any library policies relating to this role
- my child must respect confidentiality to the library's patrons and staff
- they are forbidden to remove or make copies of any records, reports or documents for any use
- my child is under no obligation to perform duties they feel may be outside the scope of their physical abilities or which they consider hazardous to their health or well-being

My child, as a volunteer at Patterson Library, agrees to perform their duties in a professional manner, acting in the best interests of the library both in the building and in the community.
